Form - Duty of Candour Annual Report

All health and social care services in the UK have Duty of Candour responsibilities. This is a legal requirement which means that when things go wrong and mistakes happen, the people affected understand what has happened, receive an apology and organisations learn how to improve for the future.

An important part of this duty is to provide an annual report about the duty of candour in our service. This short report describes how the Care Home has operated the duty of candour during the last year. We hope you find this report useful.

What year does this annual report relate to?: 2025

Who is completing the report: Deborah Dawson

Job Role: Home Manager

Provide a short narrative about your service: Lighthouse Lodge is a residential care home that offers residential and Dementia care for 80 residents. We currently have 75 residents residing at lighthouse lodge. We aim to be open about all incidents to ensure lessons learnt are met.

When an incident or accident has happened, does the Home Manager and staff set up a learning review?: YES

Please provide a short explanation of the learning from any Duty of Candours (Please do not provide any information that could identify individual residents): 2 residents became very friendly, holding hands and sitting together during the day times. Both residents lack capacity were found in one of the bedrooms undressed. Neither resident were in distress. We increased the observations due to there capacity levels, informed NOK and referred to safeguarding and CQC stat notification sent in.

Duty of candour informs our learning and planning for improvements as a service, and as a company. It has helped us to remember that people who use our services have the right to know when things could be better, as well as when they go well.

Do you confirm that you have made this report available to the regulator but in the spirit of openness, have also published it to share with residents and their relatives too.: YES
